Pursuing Victory With Honorsm

Welcome to the CIF Championships! As you watch this education-based competition keep in mind the following excerpts from the CIF Mission Statement: "It's bigger than sports. The CIF provides students with the opportunity to belong, connect, and compete in education-based experiences." and "It is essential to have families and community supporters who display positive behavior which will allow our students to create their own experiences."

When you attended your last high school athletic event did you witness a crowd of spectators who were excited to be there and positively supported their team or did you see a group of people who constantly berated the officials, coaches, and even the student-athletes playing in the contest? While we hope it was the former, it is not surprising if it was the latter. And if that were the case, we can no longer sit back and observe that behavior without taking action. If we do, there is the real possibility that sometime in the near future there will no longer be enough officials for our students to play the game they love.

The CIF produced a public service announcement (PSA) that featured CIF student-athletes describing what they like about the support they receive from their families and communities but also the behaviors they wish would not occur at their games. One student-athlete described her experience which is incredibly disheartening as our mission is for our participants to feel exactly the opposite:

You're trying your best and you're putting yourself out there and you're on the court, doing what you love, and seeing and hearing people belligerently be mean to you is frustrating. It makes you not want to play anymore. It makes you just want to go on the sidelines and cry. It's not fun.

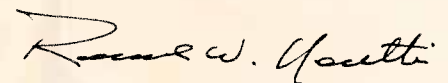

To that end, the CIF put out the following message in the same PSA:

How we behave at games is a reflection of who we are. Let's turn the tables on bad behavior and show friends, students, our kids, and the other team a side of ourselves that makes them truly proud. Sportsmanship is simple. It means treating other students, fans, and opponents as you'd like your school's players to be treated. It also means showing respect to our game officials. Without them, our student-athletes don't get to play the sport they love. Only then are we worthy of the title of CIF student-athletes, families, and coaches. So, let's get back to what we do best, California. Great competition and the best fans in the country. Thank you for being part of the change. And thank you for being there to lift us up.

We sincerely hope that you enjoy this exciting time of year when CIF member schools and student-athletes compete both regionally and statewide. As you enjoy these contests, please remember that the focus should be on our student-athletes and all that they have accomplished to get here. Please respect them, our coaches, and contest officials while cheering positively for your team. We appreciate your support of high school sports in California.

Engelhardt leads distance depth, youthful dash phenoms at 104th CIF-State Championships

By Rich Gonzalez, PrepCalTrack.com Editor
@PrepCalTrack on Instagram/X

The CIF-State Track and Field Championships, in its 104th edition, is the envy of all other state meets, a single-division blockbuster that draws together a wealth of unmatched talent from across all event areas into a final mano-a-mano showdown to determine undisputed supremacy.

This year's version of the season-ending classic promises to be special yet again, featuring a national record talent in the girls' 1600-meter run, unprecedented levels of excellence in both the boys and girls distance races, and a precocious lineup of talent assembled for the boys' sprints.

Qualifying takes place on Friday and the finals on Saturday at Buchanan High School's picturesque Veteran's Memorial Stadium, where future Olympians have received their first meaningful coronation.

Here's our breakdown of the top stars and leading storylines unfolding this weekend:

GIRLS DISTANCES — Ventura/ss junior and two-time defending state 1600 champion Sadie Engelhardt has been without peer this spring, rewriting the record books while stunning onlookers across the map. Twice this spring she has broken the National High School Federation record for the four-lapper via en route splits in full mile races, her fastest split (4:29.86) registering nearly four seconds faster than the state meet record! Already beating a pro field in "open" competition at 1500 meters this spring, she'll be seeking a record-matching third state title in the event, which would make her only the fourth to ever do so (joining University's Polly Plumer, Vista's Kira Jorgensen, and Woodbridge's Christine Babcock). Harnessing nation-leading 2:03.48 speed for 800 meters, the decision whether to race the clock for the meet record or aim to win while conserving energy for Saturday night's 4x800 relay — where the Cougars hold the state-leading time — will be fun to watch unfold. Barring shocking surprise, the contest is really for the silver medal, where San Diego star Chiara Dailey (4:42.26) of La Jolla has been battle-tested against the likes of 3200-meter favorite Jaelyn Williams of Eastlake. Corona Santiago/ss distance talent Braelyn Combe (4:45.56), who had the closest look at Engelhardt in the Southern Section wars this season, has enjoyed a superb sophomore campaign in both cross country and on the oval. Dana Hills' Annie Ivarsson, the Southern Section Masters bronze medalist, and top Northern California entrant Tatum Oleson (4:48.14) of Menlo-Atherton head up the chase pack on Engelhardt.

The 3200-meter challenge boasts an alarmingly deep field, but whether it can keep Williams in check remains to be seen. The Eastlake sophomore has strung together a series of jaw-dropping midweek performances across all race distances this season, including an unheard 10:03.07 for the eight-lapper in a dual meet! While her 10:00.30 (U.S. #4) seasonal best is only a few seconds clear of her nearest challengers, it came in cold and rainy conditions. One senses she's ready to slam down on the pedal if needed. One of her compatriots in the San Diego wars, La Costa Canyon's Gioana Lopizzo (#9 U.S. at 10:05.65), seeks to improve on her bronze medal finish of a year ago. Trabuco Hills' Holly Barker (U.S. #6 at 10:02.52) aims to close out a solid campaign of her own, among the remaining survivors in the gauntlet that is the Southern Section qualifying rounds, where Santiago/ss gem Rylee Blade earned the most recent crown. The stellar JSerra distance program checks in here with fabulous sophomore Summer

Wilson, who has cracked 10:30 on six occasions this spring. Montogmery/nc super junior Hanne Thomsen posted one of the top qualifying times last weekend (seasonal best 10:16.66) while Rio Hondo League stalwarts Maya DeBrouwer of La Cañada and Abby Errington South Pasadena are additional names in a loaded entry list featuring an unprecedented nine girls with sub-10:18.00 credentials!

The girls 800 should also prove electric as the talent-stacked field showcases six girls with sub-2:08 personal bests, the strongest lineup ever assembled for the year-end meet! Claremont/ss senior L'Mio Edwards (2:06.01, #6 in the U.S. in 2024) fronts the list, but fellow Southern Section star Keaton Robar of Newport Harbor won their showdown last weekend. Senior Georgia Jeanneret, another top JSerra talent, and the imposing San Diego trio of Poway senior Tessa Buswell and juniors Kaitlyn Arciaga of Westview and Makenna Herbst of Carlsbad stack this field with alarming depth!

BOYS DISTANCES — The California state leaders in the 800, the 1600, and the 3200 will not toe the start line for those events in Clovis this weekend. Instead, four-lap leader Evan Noonan (4:04.02) of Dana Hills will focus on the 3200, eight-lap chart topper Emmanuel Perez (8:40.47) of Cathedral will attack the 1600, and 800 leader Alden Morales (1:49.91) of JSerra is sidelined by injury.

Regardless, the lineups have already proved historic.

For the first time ever, the state meet 1600 entry list is graced with five racers courting personal bests of 4:07.40 or faster! In the 3200, a record four entered athletes hold bests of 8:48.12 or faster! While the 800 is missing the state's two fastest talents, the top remaining seeded could secure 10 big points for the team title favorite.

In the 1600, Andreas Dybdahl (Santa Barbara/ss) seeks to have his Midas touch yet again. After defeats in all eight of his invitational and postseason races last year, Dybdahl (4:06.50 in 2024) cracked the code to earn gold at the state final, his only 'stakes-level' victory all year! Like last season, the UCLA signee has already been tagged in defeat this year by Channel League rivals Anthony Fast Horse (4:05.26) and Micah Grossman (4:06.42) of Ventura, the two fastest in this year's race field. Beckman's Ibzán Felix has been a terror this season while Millikan/ss senior Jason Parra has been equally effective. But it's Cathedral/ss senior Manny Perez (4:08.07) who's looked especially effortless this spring in signaling ample upside.

The 3200-meter challenge features Dana Hills' Noonan (a U.S. #6 time of 4:04.02 for 1600) seeking to avenge last year's mid-race spill that denied any chance of contending for the win. In-the-mix positioning in the middle laps will be key. Joshua Bell of Templeton/cc holds the top seed time (8:42.79) and has breezed under 8:56 three times already this spring while Grant Morgenfeld of Palo Alto/cc (8:49.32 in 2023) is a highly experienced racer at this level. Millikan's Parra is attempting a grueling 1600/3200 while Central Coast Section record holder Landon Pretre of Menlo School (8:48.11) seeks to close out a spectacular junior year campaign. Several Northern California talents appear to be measuring their late-season racing carefully in search of a fine pop here while Crescenta Valley/ss senior Eddie Sion, the state's most improved elite talent harbors hopes of one last special race.

The two-lapper is perhaps the state's toughest event, a demanding blend of tactical efficiency and lactate tolerance. With more of a sprint background than his rivals, Cathedral senior Bodi Ligons (1:51.32 two weeks ago) appears best equipped for the challenge, with the event title clearly within reach. After throttling into a training/racing red zone at midseason, he's recovered nicely and has rounded into peak shape. Long Beach Wilson finally busted into the picture last weekend as both Wyland Obando and J.T. Kraemer delivered seasonal-best efforts (1:51.53 and 1:52.27, respectively) to potentially set up for a nice chunk of scoring points. Olympian's Angel Cordero, the San Diego champion, and Sac-Joaquin victor Jeffrey Overgaard of Lincoln of Stockton are additional lead threats.

BOYS SPRINTS — No freshman boy has ever won California's 100-meter-dash title. That 103-year drought could finally end this weekend... with TWO prodigious ninth graders primed to achieve the feat. Yes, they are fast.

Not so fast.

Standing in their way are a pair of the North Coast's 'all-timer' dash phenoms who've been busy waging back-and-forth battles, plus the fastest Los Angeles City Section talent since the great Quincy Watts.

Hold everything. At the eleventh hour, San Diego's own ultra-speed burner has entered the chat... and done so very quickly.

Welcome to the battle for moniker ownership of "Golden State's Fastest Teen," where four of the six leading contenders are true underclassmen — yes, freshmen and sophomores!

Leading the speed parade into Clovis is Mt. Miguel HS (SD) tenth grader Brandon Arrington Jr., who absolutely torched the competition at San Diego Sectionals in sweeping the short sprints. In the century dash, his 10.50 victory came against the wind while his wind-aided triumph in the deuce (an all-conditions nation-leading 20.40) equaled the second-fastest all-conditions 200 performance in state history, matching the time by 100m state record holder Rodrick Pleasant (Serra HS '23) and trailing only eventual Olympic gold medalist Michael Norman (Vista Murrieta HS '16)!

Granada Hills Charter senior speedster Jordan Coleman brandishes the best top-end gear we've seen this spring and exhibited a 10.49 scorcher at the L.A. City Finals (#2 all-time behind two-time Olympic gold medalist Watts), made more stunning being done against a 1.6 meters-per-second! Only one other Golden State prep in memory has run faster against such a headwind: Yep, Olympian Michael Norman.

Acalanes senior Paul Kuhner sits atop the wind-legal state leaders list (and #6 nationally) after unleashing a 10.36 screamer two weeks ago at the Tri-Valley Area Championships, becoming the second-fastest dasher in North Coast Section history. But rising De La Salle sophomore Jaden Jefferson edged Kuhner under abysmal sprint conditions (cold and windy) at last week's NCS Meet of Champions to enter the title picture.

Then come those two ninth graders, poised to topple the apple cart.

Southern Section Masters winner Demare Dezeurn, despite a tenuous hamstring ailment in recent weeks, has successfully navigated uncharted waters to arrive here safely after having to scratch the 200 as a precautionary measure. The poised Bishop Alemany 15-year-old ripped across the line to win Southern Sectionals in a wind-aided 10.36, the second-fastest all-conditions frosh 100m time in state history! Long Beach Poly's Benjamin Harris owns the third-fastest frosh time in state annals, buzzing 10.38 in his national coming out party at the Redondo Track Festival two months ago. Last month, he also became the first ninth grader to ever win the 100-meter title at the prestigious Arcadia Invitational.

Arrington ranks as the favored pick in the 200, holding the all-conditions national lead with his 20.40 shocker (wind-aided) at San Diego's state qualifier. Central Section winner Jalen Ford of Bakersfield is only a sophomore yet arrives here as the #2 seed and only other dasher with sub 21.00 credentials. Los Alamitos junior Devin Bragg, the state frosh record-setter in the 100 in 2022, also factors in both short sprints. As several key names have succumbed in the qualifying rounds, Cathedral 9th-grader Roosevelt Reuben (21.25) could vie for crucial bonus team points.

Northview senior Dylan Ochoa, who missed the state meet by one qualifying spot last year, is fresh off winning the SS Masters Meet in the 400 despite losing his balance and literally falling across the line in a state-leading 47.01! Culver City junior Duaine Mayrant has clocked 47.09 in two successive weekends after never before breaking 48 seconds, so he's on a roll! Georgia-signed senior Xai Ricks holds the key to Long Beach Poly's team title chances but must overcome the injuries that have nagged him in 2024 after racing the oval 46-point on four occasions last May, including 46.06 for the silver medal at last year's state meet. This kid is a special talent, seeking to add another chapter to Long Beach Poly's unmatched lore in the sport!

GIRLS SPRINTS — Girls' action in the dashes should once again be electric, with Southland entrants flooding the top of the entry lists. Chaparral junior Keelan Wright saw her seasonal unbeaten streak snapped in the 100 against in-state foes last weekend as she crossed the line a somewhat humbling fourth at the Southern Section Masters Meet. Nevertheless, her chart-topping 11.38 (wind-aided) at the Mt. SAC Relays checks in at #8 nationally this spring under all conditions. Serra senior Mia Flowers, sixth here last year, is fresh off the big Southern Sectionals win, ripping 11.46 in a wind-aided scorcher. Canyon of Canyon Country's Mikaela Warr, another SS talent, and San Diego Madison's Amirah Shaheed both harbor explosive power here. Oaks Christian's Niya Clayton, who won the gold medal last year in riding sizeable improvements down the stretch, seeks to cook up that recipe again this weekend. Edison of Stockton's Shanye Harris, St. Ignatius' Ellie McCuskey-Hay, and Carson's Christina Gray are additional proven talents while Royal's Olivia Kirk has delivered head-turning improvements this spring!

Wright delivered the goods at 200 meters (clocking a 23.48 all-conditions state leader) at the Southern Section qualifier last week, while Shaheed did the same down in San Diego. Being added to the half-lap fray are long-sprint talents Payton Smith of La Jolla and Morgan Maddox of Culver City, with UCIA-bound Kayla McBride of Ayala/ss and Central Coast mega-talent Hannah Rutherford of Mountain View also showcased in an event oozing with depth! Most of the heavy hitters in the 400-meter dash avoided disaster along "The Road To State", setting up an exciting crescendo to determine final honors. St. Mary's Academy/ss of Inglewood junior Madison Mosby dropped a mild surprise in winning SS Masters (career-best 53.17), with Culver City's Maddox and La Jolla's Smith seeking to answer her in Clovis. Rutherford has been dynamite in the Central Coast battles while Ayala's McBride will begin to shed from her typical workload as she tapers for a big pop of her own.

GIRLS RELAYS — Golden State athletes have always flourished at the year-end spectacle, oftentimes saving their best in the relays, where national records have repeatedly been smashed. This year, excitement abounds as the baton action will figure prominently in the overall team championships! In the long relay, Long Beach Wilson seeks to apply to finishing touches on its high-mileage tour (including trips to Texas and Oregon) with victory in what should cap a team-title performance for the Bruins. Wilson ripped a state-leading 3:42.23 performance at the midseason Texas Relays that remains among the top 10 times nationally Calabasas gave the Bruins a scare at their Masters Meet tilt, falling just a stride short of prevailing. St. Mary's Academy, Culver City, and Long Beach Poly, all schools not far from the shoreline, are respected heavy hitters also featured while JSerra, regarded more as a distance power, is making noise in the long sprints as well.

Over in the short dashes, Calabasas has been ringing the bell loudly of late, including a 45.71 effort (10th nationally) to claim the state lead at the Southern Section Masters Meet, just ahead of state #2 Long Beach Poly (45.95). Carson, which has been building nicely in recent weeks, is poised to represent the Los Angeles City Section in grand fashion while leading a very deep cast seeking to bust into 45-second territory.

In the 4x800, Ventura's team — with three members being part of a crew that crushed the distance medley national record last month in 11:21.85 — moved into the pole position last week after a very controlled state-leading 9:02.57 at the SS Masters Meet, dropping previous leader Corona Santiago in the process. Those two squads hold a nice margin over the rest of the field, but North Coast Section powers Granada and Campolindo spearhead the chase pack in an event where the intensity lends itself to massive breakthroughs. Look for the 9-minute barrier to be seriously challenged!

BOYS RELAYS — Track action gets off to a roaring start in the short relay, where Los Angeles City boys 4x100 winner Granada Hills arrives with the fifth-fastest time in state history at 40.29 (also U.S. #8 this year), that coming in dual meet action six weeks ago. Justin Hart and Timothy Wyatt combine with 100/200 title contender Jordan Coleman as leading members on the squad. De La Salle broke the North Coast Section record in the 4x100 when it zipped 40.83 at the Sacramento Meet of Champions, with sophomore Jaden Jefferson keying an all-non-senior lineup!

2024 Meet Preview

More recently, Southern Section powers Long Beach Poly (40.93) and Notre Dame of Sherman Oaks (41.15) have repeatedly shaved off time in recent weeks; they boast two of the state's best three pedigrees in the event (along with since-eliminated Rancho Cucamonga) over the last decade. Keep your eye also on traditionally-efficient-through-the-zone St. Mary's of Stockton, which won the Sac-Joaquin Section's crown despite not featuring a single athlete in the 100 final!

A spectacular addition to last year's state meet was the debut of the 4x800 relays, which produced two of the meet's most exciting finishes, opened the door for more competitively conducive 1600/4x800 distance doubles, and even prompted legions of surprised sprint coaches to rousingly applaud the new event. With state leader and U.S. #4 Long Beach Wilson failing to advance from the Southern Section qualifier buzzsaw, overall team title contender Cathedral (led by Manny Perez and Manny Hernandez) emerges as the top seed by its U.S. #8 time of 7:42.19 while inaugural 4x800 champion San Clemente (keyed by twins Taj and Pierce Clark) and Santa Barbara (anchored by defending state 1600m champ Andreas Dybdahl) headline a deep cast. From the north, friendly Sac-Joaquin Section foes Jesuit (headed by Kyle Jakary and Jonah Reynolds) and Davis (paced by Beckett Dolan) lead the charge. In just its second year as an event in California, the state has skyrocketed to the forefront in the event, producing 14 sub-8:50.00 boys squads (twice as many as the next-best state) and 11 sub-9:18.00 girls teams (most in the nation)!

Nothing brings a track crowd to its feet quite like the meet-ending 4x400 challenge. This year, the boys race outcome promises added drama as it likely solidifies the overall team championship. Culver City, which has evolved into a factory for one-lap dash talents in recent seasons, captured last week's Southern Section Masters crown in a state-leading 3:13.78. Moore League Long Beach-based rivals Poly and Wilson (both in the 3:14s this season) also clash, with the former likely needing to finish ahead of Cathedral to have a strong chance at the teamwide championship. Tri-River Athletic Conference foes Central of Fresno (headed up by Walter Pierce and Emanuel Morgan) and Linkin Wolf/Logan Cole-led Clovis High featured qualifiers as well.

BOYS THROWS — It has been more than half a century since any Golden State school has showcased a pair of shot-putting teammates as effective as Clovis North senior Brayden Bitter and junior McKay Madsen; the tandem rank 1-2 in the state this year, with Bitter unleashing a towering 65-00.25 effort to win Central Section Masters here last week and Madsen heaving the iron ball 63-06 in a high-caliber midseason clash. (It was way back in 1971 that Newport Harbor featured the best duo in Golden State history as Mark Stevens exceeded 67 feet and Terry Albritton each surpassed 65 feet at the state meet!) Madsen, who has prevailed in 9 of the season's 14 shot put outcomes against his teammate, is also the state leader in the shot put. If the form charts hold in both events, the Broncos should contend for a team plaque (via a top-three overall scoring placement) once the dust settles.

Zach Lewis of Garden Grove Pacifica/ss has tagged defeat on both Bitter and Madsen at separate meets this season and is coming off an 8-inch career improvement in winning Southern Sectionals. Argonaut/sj senior Jake Todden, among the state's hottest throwers in March, seeks a quality taper in aiming to return to form. Hagop Marmarian (60-10.00) of Marshall Fundamental/ss is the lone remaining 60-footer in the field, that mark coming in a surprise win at the Mt. SAC Relays.

The discus ring at Buchanan High is an especially welcoming site for throwers, with preferred quartering winds for right-handed throwers often yielding a few extra feet in measured distance over most other facilities. Clovis Nort's Madsen rode that wave last week to become the 40th 200-foot thrower in state history when he garnered the Central Section Masters win in a career-best 204-02 (#4 U.S.). Buchanan/ce senior Derek Smith reaped the same benefits, going 195-03 in chasing after Madsen. Central Coast Section champion Kyler Headley, winner in 11 of his 12 outings this spring, tossed the platter 189-06 to lead eight additional throwers here who've exceeded 180 feet in 2024.

GIRLS THROWS — In the rebuilding aftermath from the pandemic, the technique-centric field events have taken longer to revert to form than the running events. The throws have recovered at perhaps the slowest rate for the masses, but the trend is changing. On top, Campolindo's Pinkie Schnayer is towing the Golden State's elite back toward the 50-foot barrier, her 48-05.00 blast in the shot put in her league championship checking in as the #8 mark nationally this season and stamping her as the clear choice in the event. Powering beyond 45 feet in six of her meets this season, her only setback came to defending state champ Aja Johnson of Notre Dame/SS in their showdown on this venue at the midseason West Coast Relays. Johnson has nailed a career-best 46-10.00 at the SS Masters Meet each of the last two years, hoping for a repeat title win this time around. Aliso Niguel's Jaslene Massey, who stunned everyone with a near-four-foot improvement (46-00.00) is the lone additional 45-footer in the state.

Johnson (fourth in the disc here last year who has also high jumped 5-feet as a high schooler) and Canyon Crest Academy's Elisabeth Driscoll (sixth) are featured in the discus throw, the latter sitting atop the state leaderboard with a

157-11 fling in winning her league final at the start of the month. Davis' Sol Bitners, the Sac-Joaquin Section Masters champ, the third 150-footer in the field, has consistently been in the 140-foot range this spring. Camarillo's Trinity Tipton, another returning state finalist, upped her career best to 145-04 at last week's SS Masters Meet.

BOYS JUMPS — A bounding prodigy will be stalking the high jump apron this weekend as Notre Dame/ss wunderkind J.J. Harel seeks to become just the second sophomore to win the state crown in the event in more than half a century, joining 2008 winner Harrison Steed of JSerra. Harel, who transferred from one Mission League school (Chaminade) to another, is unbeaten after becoming athletically eligible at his new school in late March. A gold medalist at the 2022 Maccabi Games, Harel leads the state after clearing 7-00.25 (tied for #4 in the nation) this past weekend; the sophomore class state record is 7-02.00 by Selma's Gabriel Zarate from the 1996 season. Birmingham's Deshawn Banks should prove a very worthy nemesis for Harel after displaying incredible consistency this spring, including eight meets where he's scaled 6-10 or better en route to winning the L.A. City Section title. Fairfax senior Sebastian Ikolo nearly stunned Banks at the City meet, matching his 6-10 clearance but closing the title on fewer total misses. St. Mary's of Stockton senior Legend Moore, the top returnee from last year with his bronze medal finish, matched his career-best of 6-08.00 last weekend to win Sac-Joaquins. Mater Dei/ss junior Brandon Gorksi, finished fifth at state last year when he cleared 6-09.00 earlier in the season.

Martin Luther King/ss senior Jaden McKee is the one to beat on the pole vault runway, the distinction earned via his state-leading 17-foot clearance (tied for seventh nationally) in dual meet action last month, supported by a 16-

10 performance a month earlier. Pittsburg/nc junior Khaliq Muhammad, the North Coast Section Meet of Champions winner, ranks #3 on the all-time NCS lists with his 16-09 career best. University City's Kai Anderson, whose 16-08 best ranks third statewide, needed an at-large invitation after struggling somewhat in a loaded San Diego Section Finals clash. Turlock/sj senior Maxwell McFarlane, a three-time state qualifier, won the silver medal last year. Westlake senior Cade Sommers, younger brother to state girls pole vault record holder Paige Sommers, has improved nicely as a prep to crack beyond the 16-foot barrier.

Acalanes senior Trevor Rogers (24-05.75, #3 U.S.), also a fine talent on the gridiron, has produced 24-foot-plus jumps at all four of his key meets this season — Stanford, Arcadia, NCS Tri-Valley Area, and NCS Meet of Champions — to arrive as the odds-on favorite in the long jump. Roseville/sj senior Joel Bradley seemed like a mid-season anomaly, holding a 24-foot meet victory sandwiched by several outings in the 21- and 22-foot range; but has redeemed himself in recent weeks, supported by four consecutive victories in the 23-foot range. A handful of other jumpers have approached the 24-foot barrier this spring, but in many cases as venues where the sand levels were called into question.

One could throw a blanket over the field of triple jump competitors but might have just as much success trying to pick the winner from the covered faces. Central/ce senior Samuel Agbakoba is the all-conditions state leader (47-10.50, wind-aided) but authors no other jumps this season within a full foot of that mark. Tolaoluwa Spencer of Whitney/sj has spanned efforts in the high 47s over the last two weekends to arrive in good form while senior Justin Reichenberg has netted four high-quality efforts this spring from the respected Mission Bay jumps program. Visa Murrieta/ss, which boasts a fine tradition of its own in the jumps, features Kosi Nwafor, who has enjoyed a sprinkling of fine marks this season.

GIRLS JUMPS — With Castaic/ss all-around phenom Meagan Humphries opting to skip the high jump this year in favor of other disciplines this weekend and Long Beach Poly's being a victim of the grueling qualifying rounds, the high jump competition has been thrown into more uncertainty than expected. Ventura's Valentina Fakrogha, also an excellent 400-meter runner, could emerge as the mild favorite here, although the Central Coast tandem of Menlo's Summer Young and Monta Vista's Lelani Laruelle join her as established 5-08.00 jumpers. Nervous coaches will leave behind fingernail scraps along the fence line, to be sure.

In the pole vault competition, nice depth is featured here but Pittsburg's Jathiyah Muhammad is clearly the one to beat after posting a trio of 14-foot performances this spring, including a state-leading and U.S. #2 14-04.00 at the Texas Relays. Del Norte's Page Eschner, a fine all-around athlete posting impressive splits in the dash relays, Masters champ Aspen Fears of Vista Murrieta/ss, and Chloe Metz-Thompson of Nevada Union, are additional 13 footers from 2024 results.

Humphries, among the best all-around talents in Golden State history, is among the top entrants in both horizontal jumps, court- ing a career-best 20-03.25 in the long and bounding 40-08.75 in the triple. She'll need to summon all her energy just to win one title — let alone two — as the likable phenom faces stiff competition in the Golden State. Moore League champ Loren Webster of Long Beach Wilson has sailed 20-09.50 (all-conditions U.S. #3) this season while Alyssa Alumbres of jumps factory Vista Murrieta/ss has spanned 40-04 in her specialty event. Royal's Quincie Richards, Jurupa Valley/ss sophomore AB Hernandez, and Whitney/sj senior Juliana Roberson lend the triple jump competition very nice depth.

BOYS HURDLES — Perhaps the toughest boys event to correctly handicap through the first five places is the 110-meter high hurdles, where the top combatants have repeatedly traded outcomes this spring. Cosumnes Oaks/sj senior Myles McFarland might have the best season ledger to date, including a pair of victories against top rivals Rickey Green III of Inderkum and Zion Shelton of El Cerrito in a Sac-Joaquin region that has produced robust results. Down south, Helix/sd senior Shon Martin broke the San Diego Section record with his 13.84 wind-legal showing at Arcadia and boasts six sub-14.00 clockings this season. Central of Fresno's Noel Felix seeks victories in back-to-back weekends on the Veterans Memorial Stadium track after prevailing at the Central Section Masters Meet.

State leader Cayden Roberson of Roosevelt/ss was among multiple high-end casualties in the qualifying rounds of the 300-meter intermediate hurdles, leaving new top seed Daniel Agbelusi (37.40) of Beaumont/ss and a trio of prime San Diego talents in a battle royale to determine the champion. Agbelusi, the Southern Section Masters winner, has been the most consistent among the lot, including seven outings in the thirty-seven-second range this spring. El Capitan/sd senior Jonathan Tseko-Biffle is a highly regarded dark horse to respect, making sizeable improvement since last year to surprise many in winning the San Diego Section crown last week. Cathedral Catholic's Vincent Atilano, carrying a bit lighter workload this meet than during much of the season, performed his best at Arcadia when the competition was stiffest. Helix's Shon Martin, the seeded race winner at Arcadia, rounds out the seasoned list of auto-qualifiers from San Diego.

GIRLS HURDLES — Three of the top four finishers at last year's state meet return, but none are the favorite. While twin sister Makenna will be just warming down from her primary challenge in the 800 meters, Morgan Herbst will be cranking up the engine across the 300-meter hurdles. The Carlsbad 11th grader just missed the state final last year but has torqued up her efforts to sit atop the California lists with her 41.45 screamer that also ranks ninth nationally this spring; the only Golden Stater to crack under 42 seconds this season, she has done so three times in recent months. Defending state champ Kaylin Edwards of Long Beach Wilson/ss is rounding into championship form of late, recording her two best seasonal marks (including 42.00) in her most recent outings. San Diego High's Anisa Bowen Fontenot, last year's silver medalist, has been chasing Herbst all season, seeking to reel her in when it counts most. UCLA-bound Mia Holden of South Pasadena, who shaved a full second off her prior best in placing fourth at last year's state final, seeks a repeat breakthrough this weekend. DeAuna Louis and Soleil Warner, representing Girls Academic Leadership Academy/ss and Bay School of San Francisco/nc, respectively, are additional big-time talents at small-enrollment schools.

In the 100-meter hurdles, the top returnee from last year's state meet suffered disqualification in her state-qualifying meet last weekend, leaving San Diego's Bowen-Fontenot — already the state leader at 13.67 — as an even stronger favorite, going unbeaten this spring against all remaining hurdlers. Senior Fallyn Gowans from tiny Marlborough High, was a surprise winner at Southern Section Masters, edging out Long Beach Wilson's Kaylin Edwards. Bakersfield Liberty senior Bella Turner, the Central Section Masters winner, is a returning state finalist.

TEAM COMPETITIONS — When compared to the multi-division formats employed across the nation (Georgia's state meet boasts seven divisions, for example, while Texas features six divisions), California's highly unique single-division format yields the most competitive showdown for event titles throughout the land. The flip side of that calculus, however, results in low point tallies in the quest for team titles; in short, it's ultra-difficult for even the best California programs to have more than a few potential scorers even reach the finals! This year, with the absence of an overly dominant program on the boys' side, we project to have the lowest winning team score since the meet revamped its format in 2009, where only the top six placers scored. Now, the scoring goes nine places deep in a 10-8-6-5-4-3-2-1-0.5 points distribution format.

Cathedral of Los Angeles boys' team could rack up close to 40 points if all goes perfectly, but will likely land somewhere in the low 30s based on strength in the 4x400 and 4x800 relays as well as the 800 and 1600, with bonus points in the hurdles and sprints possible. Only Long Beach Poly could have the firepower to approach that total, but it's a tall order as the Jackrabbits would need to fully prosper in the sprints and sprint relays. Clovis North, powered by its top-shelf throwers, and Long Beach Wilson are also in the hunt for awards plaques, presented to the top three scoring teams.

Long Beach Wilson/ss is the clear choice to land the girls' team title as the Bruins seek to successfully defend last year's championship in what would be the fifth title in the school's rich history. Wilson projects to score in all three relays, both hurdle races, as well as the sprints and jumps, and could settle in the 40-point range. Ventura/ss and Vista Murrieta/ss are the next-best teams on paper, but each has a ceiling of about 30 points, well below what Wilson is capable of stacking.

Building Stronger Communities with Pro-Screen

Join hands with Pro-Screen to create engaging and beautiful learning environments. Let's make a difference together!

Enhance Campus Life and Community Involvement

Pro-Screen believes in the power of community to transform educational spaces. Our campus beautification projects not only enhance aesthetic appeal but also foster community engagement and a positive climate.

Funding

Funding Assistance: Support and experience in securing funding for beautification projects.

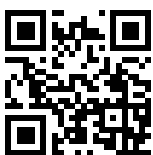

Positive Climate

Enhancing Environments: Create welcoming, inspiring spaces that promote well-being, learning, and instill school pride.

Community Engagement

Collaborative Projects: Involve students, staff, and local community in meaningful beautification efforts.

NOTHING OUTPERFORMS INCLUSION!

While we all want our students to succeed today, what's also valuable is ensuring that inclusion is always at play. When a diverse group of students share one common pursuit, they develop compassion and empathy for their teammates and competitors.

That's the best possible outcome in high school sports—because every team and every student wins!
